American Foreign Policy in the 20s CliffsNotes

Officially known as the Pact of Paris, the agreement outlawed war as an instrument of foreign policy, although all of the signatories (which eventually included 62 countries around the world) reserved the right to defend themselves in the event of an attack. Events that occurred in China after the signing of the pact, however, made it clear that there were no means of enforcing the treaty beyond whatever force international public opinion might carry.

The Evolution of Russian Foreign Policy in the 1990s

Gorbachev in conjunction with US and West European leaders continued to inform the priorities and direction of Russian foreign policy. The primary question in the Russian Western relationship soon after the Soviet Union's collapse concerned the breadth and depth of Russian co-operation with the North Atlantic world, not the centrality of co-operation itself. Looked at from the angle of
